

The manner in which Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing its local stations to air "Stolen Honor", seemingly a one-sided partisan program under the guise of news programming, is an abuse of power.

Sinclair stations use public airwaves free of charge, and are required by law to serve the public interest. This does not meet that charter. This is clearly another example of the dangers of media consolidation.

I would rather see more relevant, current issues that represent the public at large, instead of unilateral, partisan messages that help a company's bottom line while degrading democracy and further dividing our citizens.

If Sinclair stations must air a clearly anti-Kerry program like "Stolen Honor," they should also be sure to air a pro-Kerry program like "Going Upriver" shortly after. Thank you.
